

1 there is / are with a / an, some and any

- a There's a very old cooker in this house. _____
- b There's an office on the second floor. _____
- c There isn't a telephone here, but there's one on the corner. _____
- d Is there a free chair? Yes, there is. This one is free. _____
- e There's some chocolate here if you'd like some. _____
- f There isn't any hot water, but there are four bedrooms! _____
- g Are there any good songs on your computer? Yes, there are. Listen to this one. _____

- h There are some police officers near the hospital. How strange! _____

- i Are there any supermarkets in your village? No, there aren't, but there's a small shop. _____

- j There isn't a den in my garden, but there's an old swimming pool. _____

2 much, many and a lot of

- a There isn't much food in the fridge. _____
- b How much snow is there here in winter? _____
- c There's a lot of water on the bathroom floor. _____
- d How many friends of yours are there at the party? _____
- e There aren't many comfortable chairs here. _____
- f There aren't many good films on at the cinema. _____
- g There's a lot of traffic in this town. _____
- h There isn't much noise here. It's nice. _____
- i Is there much pollution where you live? No, there isn't. _____
- j There are a lot of people at the leisure centre. _____

3 Revision

I love Paris. There's a lot of traffic and there are often a lot of tourists, but there are also a lot of beautiful places. It's fantastic in spring because there are a lot of gardens and parks, and I love walking there. There are lots and lots of flowers and it's very romantic. Near the river, there are some cafés with tables and chairs on the street. There aren't many cars in that area, so I love having croissants for breakfast there. I'm going with my parents this April. Lucky me.
